06-25-00 (Re-run)	1:30pm	23:26		This program focuses on the lack of African American participation in the film and television industry. Kweisi Mfume, President of the NAACP, speaks about the agreements made between the organization and the four major networks to improve the involvement of minorities on their networks. Also, the Second City Comedy Theater addresses the need for more African American comedians on the comedy circuit. They are trying to build a better relationship in the minority communities by hosting workshops for several minority groups and providing a vehicle for a local Chicago minority comedy group called, "Forgotten City". They are also working on opening a Second City Theater in the African American community of Bronzeville.
4/30/00	11:30AM	30 mins	Local/PA	Chicagoing with Bill Campbell This program focused on the 35th Anniversary of the AACM (the Association for the Advancement of Creative Musicians). This organization was founded to give African American jazz musicians an opportunity to create orchestral and innovative music in an academic setting
